

Palm Sunday rally & march

REFUGEES ARE WELCOME HERE

Not Manus,
Not Nauru

#BringThemHere

2PM SUNDAY
25th MARCH
BELMORE PARK
*[opp Central Station]
March to Victoria Park*

Justice,
Peace, Unity

 fbl.me/RefugeeRally2018

CONTACT IAN 0417 275 713 OR PETER 0418 312 301

Palm Sunday rally & march

REFUGEES ARE WELCOME HERE

Not Manus,
Not Nauru

#BringThemHere

2PM SUNDAY
25th MARCH
BELMORE PARK
*[opp Central Station]
March to Victoria Park*

Justice,
Peace, Unity

 fbl.me/RefugeeRally2018

CONTACT IAN 0417 275 713 OR PETER 0418 312 301

The Turnbull government is constantly trying to whip up fear about refugees—as well as finding new targets such as African migrants—as it desperately seeks to recover electoral support. Refugees on both Manus Island and Nauru remain in danger. Last year, PNG immigration and police forced refugees on Manus out of the old detention centre. But they have simply been moved to other prison camps.

Locals have held repeated protests and blockades against the new camps on Manus, and the level of medical care has been drastically reduced. The refugees remain vulnerable to attack. A Human Rights Watch report in October documented these frequent and brutal assaults. One man nearly lost his arm following a machete attack. An Iranian asylum seeker suffered a fractured skull after an attack with a metal rod as his phone and money were stolen.

So far only 230 have been accepted under the US resettlement deal from Manus and Nauru—and there are over 1500 more refugees and asylum seekers there. Iranian, Somali and Syrian refugees are now blocked from going to the US by Trump's travel ban. And Iranians are the largest single national group on Manus and Nauru.

In Australia there are still thousands of asylum seekers waiting to be processed under the unfair new “fast track” process which removes appeal rights. The new system is designed to reject a far higher number of people. And those who receive refugee status can still only get a temporary visa, and suffer ongoing insecurity. The Australian government must take responsibility for the refugees on Manus Island and Nauru and Bring Them Here immediately. And it needs to welcome all refugees and provide fair processing and a secure future.

The drums of war are beating louder, especially for a possible nuclear war over the political crisis on the Korean Peninsula. War creates millions of new refugees. Nuclear war could destroy the world as we know it.

It's time to stand up for refugees, justice, peace and unity!

Get involved: help us build the pressure for change

Contact Refugee Action Coalition if you'd like to help on our next Super Stall Saturday to publicise the rally. We can let you know about stalls you can join near you info@refugeeaction.org.au or 0438 718 348 or fb.com/RACsydney

Rally endorsements so far: Australian Anti-Bases Campaign Coalition, Blue Mountains Refugees Support Group, Doctors for Refugees, Edmund Rice Centre for Justice and Community Education, Independent Education Union NSW, Independent and Peaceful Australia Network-NSW, Labor for Refugees NSW, Maritime Union of Australia Sydney branch, Missionaries of the Sacred Heart Justice and Peace, Mums for Refugees, NSW Ecumenical Council, National Tertiary Education Union NSW, Pax Christi Australia (NSW), Refugee Action Coalition, SEARCH Foundation, Sydney Catholic Schools, Synod of the Uniting Church in NSW/ACT

The Turnbull government is constantly trying to whip up fear about refugees—as well as finding new targets such as African migrants—as it desperately seeks to recover electoral support. Refugees on both Manus Island and Nauru remain in danger. Last year, PNG immigration and police forced refugees on Manus out of the old detention centre. But they have simply been moved to other prison camps.

Locals have held repeated protests and blockades against the new camps on Manus, and the level of medical care has been drastically reduced. The refugees remain vulnerable to attack. A Human Rights Watch report in October documented these frequent and brutal assaults. One man nearly lost his arm following a machete attack. An Iranian asylum seeker suffered a fractured skull after an attack with a metal rod as his phone and money were stolen.

So far only 230 have been accepted under the US resettlement deal from Manus and Nauru—and there are over 1500 more refugees and asylum seekers there. Iranian, Somali and Syrian refugees are now blocked from going to the US by Trump's travel ban. And Iranians are the largest single national group on Manus and Nauru.

In Australia there are still thousands of asylum seekers waiting to be processed under the unfair new “fast track” process which removes appeal rights. The new system is designed to reject a far higher number of people. And those who receive refugee status can still only get a temporary visa, and suffer ongoing insecurity. The Australian government must take responsibility for the refugees on Manus Island and Nauru and Bring Them Here immediately. And it needs to welcome all refugees and provide fair processing and a secure future.

The drums of war are beating louder, especially for a possible nuclear war over the political crisis on the Korean Peninsula. War creates millions of new refugees. Nuclear war could destroy the world as we know it.

It's time to stand up for refugees, justice, peace and unity!

Get involved: help us build the pressure for change

Contact Refugee Action Coalition if you'd like to help on our next Super Stall Saturday to publicise the rally. We can let you know about stalls you can join near you
info@refugeeaction.org.au or 0438 718 348 or fb.com/RACsydney

Rally endorsements so far: Australian Anti-Bases Campaign Coalition, Blue Mountains Refugees Support Group, Doctors for Refugees, Edmund Rice Centre for Justice and Community Education, Independent Education Union NSW, Independent and Peaceful Australia Network-NSW, Labor for Refugees NSW, Maritime Union of Australia Sydney branch, Missionaries of the Sacred Heart Justice and Peace, Mums for Refugees, NSW Ecumenical Council, National Tertiary Education Union NSW, Pax Christi Australia (NSW), Refugee Action Coalition, SEARCH Foundation, Sydney Catholic Schools, Synod of the Uniting Church in NSW/ACT